

I have been an active Shortwave Radio Listener since 1977. I am deeply concerned about rising interference from newer sources, many of which cannot be filtered out by even the best of radios. Since Broadband Over Power Lines would directly radiate interference within the Shortwaves, I feel an alternative method should be used.